OUR ENGRAVED WORK IS THE BEST—OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

THE SEMI-ANNUAL SALE OF MANUFACTURERS' REMNANTS.
UPHOLSTERY STUFFS, LACE CURTAINS, CURTAIN ENDS, BED SETS, PILLOW SHAMS, ETC., began here yesterday, presents a golden opportunity to the public. It's a sale of the most liberal proportions you, perhaps, ever heard of. Not old showmen's remnants, but new, fresh, crisp things brought direct from the factory to us. We bought them for little, we've marked them accordingly at half and less than half retail prices. There were thousands of them, but at the rate they're being carried off now they won't last many days.

Our Holiday Opening

For

Eight years, writes Mr. N. MORTONSON, editor Superior Post, Ishpeming, Mich., "I suffered the most excruciating pains from rheumatism, both in Sweden and America, and almost despaired of ever finding relief. Finally, I determined to try AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, having heard of many cases that had been cured by it. Before beginning to use this preparation, I had Mr. Tallgren of Iron Mountain, Mich., a graduate in pharmacy from Sweden, analyzed it. He informed me that I could use AYER'S SARSAPARILLA for my RHEUMATISM.

Not only without fear, but, probably, with benefit. I accordingly took five or six bottles, and was entirely cured. This was in 1884, and during all these years I have hardly felt a pain."

"After suffering severely for many years from rheumatism, I was induced to try AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and received immediate benefit."—D. S. WINCHESTER, Holden, Ma.

THE SOCIAL WORLD.

Description of Miss Leiter's Beautiful Boudoir.

About the Doings of Well-Known People—Weddings and Entertainments—Personals.

The Leiter residence on Dupont circle is rapidly receiving the finishing touches from the decorators and some parts of it are already comfortably arranged for the occupancy of the family. The Misses Leiter have been here for the past month, Mr. and Mrs. Leiter coming and going at intervals. The great size of the mansion places it ahead of all others here, and the elegance of its interior finishing has probably never been excelled in this section. One of the most attractive corners in the mansion is Miss Leiter's boudoir. It is decorated in the style of Louis XV. The walls are covered with fine old French paintings, eight in all, empaneled in woodwork richly carved and painted in white and gray. Crowning the woodwork is a cornice with carved moldings, above which, commencing about two feet below the ceiling, is an immense coffer, ending imperceptibly in the ceiling, the ground of which is gray. The chimney is of clear white marble, embellished with gilt ornaments, the most striking of which is a female head finely chiseled on a shield surrounded by flowers as a centerpiece. The fireplace has a brass door curtain that shuts off the fire from view. The French idea not before used in this country. Over the chimney is a mirror, above which is a small painting. In front of the mirror is a clock, surrounded by a wreath of flowers and suspended from the ceiling by a scarf, to which two Cupids are clinging, each one holding a wreath.

Another distinctive and very effective feature is a "sambow" in the corner of the room, opposite the chimney and entrance, composed of circular woodwork and forming a quarter of a circle and about two-thirds the height of the room, the whole being surrounded by a large dome reaching to the ceiling. The room has a balcony, from which a view is obtained of the entrance hall and marble staircase. The furniture of the boudoir is light and tasteful and the woodwork is enameled white and gray. The draperies are of a rich crimson velours de genes and have very rich effect with the white and gray. Everything in the room came from France, and from an artistic point of view is considered one of the best rooms in this city.

Mrs. Eunice Ward, who has been seriously ill for the last three weeks, is now improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Perin are at Holland House, New York. They will be home in Cincinnati the coming week.

Ex-United States Treasurer and Mrs. John C. New have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth New, to Mr. Wm. H. McKee, of Terre Haute, Ind., the well-known railroad manager. The wedding will take place on Friday, the 22d, and will be followed by a reception at the family residence in Indianapolis.

General and Mrs. Frank Armstrong have gone to housekeeping at 1759 P street.

Mrs. Dalzell, who has spent the last two weeks in Pittsburgh, has returned to her residence in this city.

The Misses Helen and Kate Brice are the guests of Mrs. W. P. Orr at Aquia, Ohio.

Mrs. Walcott, wife of Col. A. Walcott, will give her first reception and musicale from 8 to 10 o'clock on November 18, which date is also their wedding anniversary.

Mrs. W. W. Meckan has taken 142 29th street for the studios.

Mrs. Outhwaite, who is now in Columbus, Ohio, has been delightfully entertained by her friends during her visit. Last Tuesday Mrs. Birney Nell gave a delightful party and a collection in her honor. The church after-noon Mrs. Chas. Munson gave her large reception and the same evening Mrs. William Greene gave her dinner party and on Friday Mrs. John Doherty gave a tea and on Saturday a card party to meet the same favored guest.

Mr. Wm. P. Croninger has returned to the city and will be at home to her friends on Wednesdays from 2 to 4 at 1012 1/2 4th street.

The Red Rose Pleasure Club will celebrate its fourth anniversary by a banquet at the city and club rooms, 1019 7th street, on Wednesday, November 15.

The many friends of Mr. Samuel J. Gibbons were surprised to learn of his marriage last Friday to Miss Eva Russell of Georgetown. The young couple went over to Baltimore, where they were married by Rev. Father Sweeney, and then returned to this city.

Last night Miss Eva Russell of Georgetown entertained her guest, Miss Clara Laballe of Jacksonville, Fla., by a box party. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. A. A. Alexander and the young people present were: Miss Lulu Russell and Messrs. Ben Butterworth, George Orme and Philip McFarland.

Miss Minnie Welch has gone for a few weeks' visit in the west.

Miss Lulu Morris of Baltimore is visiting Mrs. John R. McLean.

Miss Thyson is in New York visiting Mrs. Bruner Happle, whose son and Miss Elkins will be married on Thursday. Mrs. Kate Thyson Marr has gone to New York to join her sister and attend the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seider have sent out cards for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Anna Seider, to Mr. T. Edmund White on Wednesday evening, November 22, at 8 o'clock.

Miss Lottie Phillips celebrated last night her eighth birthday by a masquerade party at the residence of her parents. The costumes worn by the little ones were very comical. Among those present were: Little Misses Sondheimer, Linn, Grinnell, Phillips, Posey, Taylor, Koogle, Hutchins, Barthelmus, Clavoe, Shutte, Palice, and Masters Ockershausen, Kline, Ford, and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Ackers, and Bernard Ackers.

A surprise party was given on Friday evening last
